QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of indigestible food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other ills. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. For sale at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford.

A LOUISVILLE jury very promptly decided that the Courier Journal did not libel Rev. John T. Stamper and the Georgetown preacher will have to resort to other means in his effort to secure $25,000 or any part thereof. The paper published that Stamper had promised Wharton Golden $5,000 to leave the State and not testify against Caleb Powers and that he had stated under oath at the Powers trial that he had offered Golden $5,000 not to testify. All the charges made by the Courier-Journal were sustained and now Stamper realizes no doubt that a preacher had better spend his time trying to save sinners than using his efforts to get money out of a newspaper which has never wronged him but which on the contrary has helped him by letting the outside world know that there is such a being as Rev. John T. Stamper, of Georgetown.

THE president is occupying that narrow strip of land between the devil and the deep blue sea. If he remove Commissioner of Pensions Evans, it will show that he did promise the G. A. R. his head in consideration of its vote and if he does not, the G. A. R. threatens all sorts of dire consequences. Gen. Sickles says if he is not immediately removed the republicans will lose the next Congressional election and he has so informed Mr. McKinley. All of which is cumulative evidence that the G. A. R. is out for the stuff and will sell to any party that will promise it a key to the treasury to foot at will.

THIS comes from Indiana, where they harbor thieves, assassins and sons of guns generally: The attention of the grand jury at Indianapolis and of the attorney general has been called to serious charges. It is claimed that a conspiracy exists by which sane people are made the subjects of lunacy inquests for the sake of the fees obtained by those in the conspiracy. Seventy-five per cent. of the lunacy inquests in Indianapolis are said to be held before one magistrate, and the witnesses and physicians are said to be nearly always the same.

THE unusual sight of a preacher in his pulpit dressed in a shirt waist was witnessed in St. Louis Sunday when Rev. James N. Crutcher appeared and preached in one. He had previously advised the men of his congregation to leave their coats at home and the women their hats.

THE removal of various stamp taxes reduces the revenues of the country about $40,000,000, for which an over taxed public is duly thankful. Small favors are appreciated but the people would be happier if the reduction had been doubly as great.

EMMETT ORR, of Owen county, has been rewarded for leaving the democratic party. He is to be assistant deputy to his majesty, Bolter Steve Sharpe. T. A. Mitchell, of Vanceburg, is Sharpe's chief deputy.

OLD toppers will be distressed to learn that only 25,000,000 gallons of whisky will be made next year. This is the amount agreed upon by independent distillers and the whisky trust. Of this the trust will make half.

PRESIDENT E. R. THOMAS' bank at New York went broke, but that did not prevent his marriage the same week to Miss Linda Lee, of Louisville, who journeyed to the metropolis to become his bride.

A COMPANY with a capital stock of $2,000,000 has been organized to raise cane in Cuba, notwithstanding the United States has spent millions of dollars trying to stop the raising of cane by the natives.

THE MT. VERNON Signal has quit printing Talmage's sermons and substituted those of Rev. A. J. Pike, of Brodhead. A good change.

A resolution to prohibit newspaper men from accepting railroad passes has been introduced in the Alabama constitutional convention.

POLITICAL.

Senator Scott says Gen. Sickles lied about the promise to remove Commissioner Evans.

During the past five months trusts have been organized with an aggregate capital of $2,000,000,000.

Col. J. W. Caperton, of Richmond, has declined to accept the republican nomination for representative. A sensible conclusion.

Judge Cochran, the new Federal judge of the Eastern district, will retain in office Clerk Chapman at Frankfort and Clerk Finnell at Covington.

Gen. Dan R. Collier, ex-surveyor of the port of Louisville, and adjutant general under Bradley and Taylor, has been made a storekeeper and gauger.

F. Weaver has been postmaster at Nebraska, O., under 11 different administrations. His first appointment was made by President Buchanan, September 11, 1858.

The identity of the democratic candidate for president in 1904 is not yet known, but it is known that whoever he is he will not be a democrat nominated by republicans for republican purposes only.—Commoner.

Ex-Mayor Joseph L. Rhinock, a McCreary man, defeated M. L. Harbeson for State Senator in Kenton county Saturday. Mr. Harbeson is a Cantrill man. Three representatives, also favorable to Gov. McCreary for U. S. Senator, were nominated that day.

Five thousand citizens of Philadelphia met and inaugurated a revolt against Quakerism by nominating P. P. Rothermel, Jr., for district attorney to oppose John Weaver, the Quaker candidate. Postmaster General Smith sent a telegram signifying his unqualified approval of the movement against the Quaker forces.

The law dividing Kentucky into two Federal judicial districts became effective yesterday. Court in the Eastern district opened at Covington, and the ceremonies attending the installation of the new officers were witnessed by numerous prominent lawyers from every section of the State. Judge Evans administered the oath to Judge Cochran.

Letter From Bro. Barnes.

The following to Mrs. M. E. Welch will interest his many friends and admirers here and elsewhere:

Yours of recent date followed me from Sanibel.

It is too hot to write at length, but I will briefly answer your question concerning Dr. Dowle as Elijah, the Restorer. Everything turns on whether one is expecting the Lord to come again, soon. I believe that with all my heart.

Then, if He comes, He is bound to have a man to go before Him to announce His coming. And that man is, like John the Baptist No. 1, called in Scripture, "Elijah." "Scripture can not be broken."

It is not a question of whether we approve everything Dr. Dowle does or teaches (we are not called on to make a Pope of him), but whether, looking the world over, in the full conviction that our Jesus is coming back to reign, we know of any man who "fills the bill," as does Dr. Dowle, on the Elijah pattern. I have just read No. 5 of "Zion Banner" and the remarkable defense he makes there, against his accusers, and no one can read of his work as therein set forth, in an honest, unprejudiced spirit and not acknowledge that he stands alone as a witness for God and against all evil.

Remember his own message is true: "Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand;" and there can be no repentance without a clean cut message as to sin or sins. It is not a sinner's "repentance" or change of mind, "toward God," but confession, forsaking of sin in every form to be fit for meeting the coming King.

All our minor criticisms, just or unjust, of Dr. Dowle's methods sink into their proper place of insignificance when we keep the main fact in view.

There: it is too hot to write more. We miss the Gulf breezes, here, but are very happy in our reunion.

THIS AND THAT.

Carnegie's new home in New York City will have 80 rooms.

Herbert's fruit packing house at San Jose, Cal., with 450 tons of fruit, burned.

In court at Cincinnati, Mrs. Etta Schatzmann, suing for divorce from Harvey K. Schatzmann, showed that for 15 days the total cost of food for herself and 5 children amounted to 74 cents, her husband refusing to allow her more provisions. He was in the habit of buying food, looking it in the safe and giving out so much at each meal for his wife and children.

ABOUT 150 people, mostly colored, took advantage of the $1.50 excursion to Louisville Sunday. It left here about 7 A. M. and returned at midnight.

A FEW changes in the footings of the State taxes brings the total to $2,798,491.87. Lincoln county's amount is $24,032.77, instead of $24,631.06 as at first reported.

A GENTLEMAN, who came from Hustonville yesterday, counted 21 binders at work. The wheat around Hustonville, he says, is far better than that near Stanford.

SALE.—Rev. R. H. Mahony sold to Mr. M. D. Elmore Saturday the building occupied by Craig & Hocker for $2,000. Mr. Mahony paid $1,900 for it several years ago.

PUBLIC SALE.—I will sell at public auction Saturday, July 20th, my entire household and kitchen furniture, etc., on Lancaster street. Terms made known on day of sale. Jos. Glesburg.

SINGLETON.—Lena Singleton, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. W. J. Singleton, of Moreland, died there Saturday of flux and was buried at Eubanks Sunday. She was an unusually bright little girl.

HADLY HUNT.—Mr. Samuel Bishop, of the Turnersville section, was badly hurt Saturday while running a binder. The horses became frightened and ran away, upsetting the binder and throwing him with much force to the ground. His right ankle was broken and he received a severe gash in the side. While his injuries are severe and will keep him housed for a long time, we are glad to state that they are not fatal.

A GOOD crowd is at Crab Orchard Springs and Manager J. B. Willis is feeding well and having nothing undone that would add to his guests' pleasure. Some 75 or 100 are booked for this week and this delightful summer resort will soon look like it did in years gone by when the wealth and aristocracy of the South gathered there each summer. The music is a delightful feature of the Springs this year and those who love to trip the light fantastic can do so to their heart's content. Regular boys are held each Friday evening, but the ball room is a scene of pleasure six nights out of seven. Among the guests present well-known in Stanford are: Mrs. W. P. Walton and children, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Baughman, Stanford; Judge Lee and son and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fox, Danville; Mr. B. L. Banks and wife, Richmond; Mr. G. R. Jeter, Middleburg; and others.

THE best on earth is a Hanan Shoe. John P. Jones.

HATS and flowers at cost for next 10 days. Misses Straub.

NEW line of Ranges and Cook Stoves. John Bright, Jr., & Co.

PLENTY hand-made harness of the latest pattern on hand. J. C. McClary.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to Cincinnati next Sunday at $1.50.

ICE Cream Freezers at very low prices to close out stock. George H. Farris & Co.

REMEMBER that our terms are cash. Low cash prices on feed of all kinds. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE Booth Privileges of the Hustonville Fair will be sold at auction at Hustonville at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon July 6.

T. C. BALL, who has his store-room on Depot street nicely fixed up, will go to Louisville today to buy goods to put in it.

MISSES ADAMS, of Hustonville, will sell their millinery stock on reasonable terms. Good stand. Contemplate moving causes them to sell. Write or call.

THE tax books are ready now and you are requested to call and settle. This is my last year in office and I must get all taxes in. S. M. Owens, sheriff.

LOST, between Moreland and Miss Mollie Harmon's, via Hustonville, a light blue chambra ruffle, embroidered in white and six widths wide. Leave at this office.

THE momentous question now is, how are you going to spend the glorious 4th? If this hot weather continues, most of us in Stanford will spend the day perspiring.

HUSTONVILLE.—One of those flat-out suits A. J. Adams is turning out is the only thing to wear and keep cool and look neatly dressed at the fair. Give him your order at once.

FOLLOWING is the result of the last examinations for teachers: White, eight first, seven second, three third and four failures. Colored, three first, three second and three failures.

WATERMELONS.—George H. Farris & Co. had watermelons on sale Saturday, the first of the season. They were raised in the South and were too high for newspaper people to think about.

THE semi-annual settling time is upon us. If you have an account against this office bring it in and we will cheerfully pay it. If you owe us come up and we will equally as cheerfully give you a receipt.

THE semi-annual statements of Lincoln county's three banks and the Commercial Bank of Liberty appear in this paper. Look over them carefully and see if they are not four pretty substantial institutions.

THE thermometer in this office registered 100 yesterday and it hung in about the coolest place in our sanctum. If the paper is not up to its standard this morning charge it up to "Old Sol," who is doing double duty this summer.

THE catalogue of the Hustonville fair will be out in about a week. It is chock full of liberal premiums, a list of which will appear in our next. The fair to be held July 31-three days, promises to be the greatest one yet. Of course you are going.

MR. J. B. MCKINNEY, proprietor of the McKinney Roller Mills, has made extensive improvements in his mill and it is now one of the best arranged small mills in the country. He believes in using the best only and the machinery he has recently put in is of the finest and most approved kind.

WAYNESBURG MACCABEE PICNIC.—Notwithstanding the thermometer played around the 100 mark all day Saturday fully 1,500 people attended the picnic given by Waynesburg Maccabee Tent, No. 55, and enjoyed the day to the fullest extent. The grounds selected were shady and pretty, there was an abundance of good things to eat, lots of good looking women were on hand and the best of order was preserved. It was a big day in the Southern end of Lincoln and a good advertisement it will prove for the excellent order of Maccabees. Speeches were made by a half dozen gentlemen, including Revs. W. R. Davidson and T. M. Smith and Henderson P. Young, while recitations by several young ladies, were enjoyed. Numerous outdoor sports were engaged in by those fond of athletics and the old and pleasing "game" of courting was played over and over. The Crab Orchard band under charge of Prof. Riggs, dispensed sweetest of music, and good singing was a feature of the occasion. The dinner was a first rate one; too good in fact for the low price of 25c charged. The booth men sold two big glasses of lemonade for 5c and other things as cheap. We fear the Maccabees did not make much money, but they succeeded admirably in making all present have a good time. The lodge and its members are to be congratulated on the success of the day. We are under obligations to numerous gentlemen for courtesies and to Mr. E. B. Caldwell, Jr., for good things said in behalf of the "cheapest and the best."

MISS STELLA MCCLARY will begin her school at White Oak, Monday next, July 8.

BIG inducements offered in gents Dress Shirts and Underwear. John P. Jones.

THE bids for working the 40 sections of turpentine in the county will be opened today. There are 65 bids in all.

ICE bills must invariably be paid the first of each month. I will make no exceptions to this rule. J. W. Perrin.

THE Southern Military Band, of Crab Orchard Springs, with a capital stock of $300, has filed articles of incorporation.

ON and after July 1, I will sell meats strictly for cash and this means I will credit nobody. No favors shown. O. P. Huffman.

THE severe wind of yesterday blew down a big shade tree in Judge M. C. Sauley's yard and several trees on the farms of Messrs. S. J. Embury and E. P. Woods.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS.—I will sell at public auction county day, July 6th, a new mower, two good rakes, cutting box, older press, plows and other farming implements. Mrs. Martha J. Vandever.

THE jury in the case of Nancy Hunnely and Phoebe Kling, mother and daughter, for the murder of Epey Sellers, in Pulaski, failed to agree and a telephone message from Somerset this morning says that the case will go over till next court.

MORRIS FRED has closed his exchange at Crab Orchard for the good reason that he was losing money. The Cincinnati Bargain Store, near the depot there, will handle his flour and meal. Mr. Fred is thankful for the patronage he has received.

YOUR attention is called to the advertisement of Stanford Female College, Elder B. J. Pinkerton, principal. An efficient corps of teachers will be in the faculty, which will be announced later, and nothing will be left undone to make the college the best in this section.

NOTHING of importance has been done in the circuit court since our last report and it is probable that a final adjournment will be made today or tomorrow. Col. W. G. Welch, who is counsel in several cases set for this week, is not well enough to attend to them and they will likely be continued.

Judge Sauley decided in favor of the graded school, but the attorneys for those who oppose the tax tell us they will take the case to a higher court.

The grand jury finally adjourned yesterday afternoon after returning 51 indictments, most of them for the illegal sale of whiskey.

THE following dispatch appeared in Friday's Louisville Times, which is good news to our West End friends: Hustonville will not suffer the curtailment of its name. The rumor that the postoffice department, proposed abbreviating the name to the piebald term "Huston," aroused the wrath of the Hustonvillites and remonstrances and appeals crowded into Washington until the official mail of the postmaster general resembled applications for free tickets to a circus. The matter, however, was settled by Commissioner Yerkes. After a more than ordinary vigorous appeal had been made to the commissioner he started on a run for the postoffice department and demanded a "sacred conference" with the head of the department. When he returned to the treasury department he announced triumphantly that the "deed had been done" and that Hustonville would remain Hustonville in so far as the postoffice department is concerned.

GOOD BUGGY FOR SALE.

My son, who went to Illinois, left with me a splendid top buggy, almost new, to sell, which can be seen at my residence. If not sold privately I will sell it at auction in Stanford next Monday, county court day.

HONOLULU, H. I., June 15.—By one chance out of a hundred, I am enabled to scribble the I. J. from Honolulu, the beautiful capital of the famed, but now defunct Hawaiian Republic. I wrote the I. J. a correspondence letter from Nagasaki, Japan, on May 25th and suppose same has reached you before now. We sailed from Nagasaki on the morning of May 26th for San Francisco. We took the most Northerly course. Passed the Ito to the Sagaw sea on which the City of Yokahama is situated on the 24th, when we turned a more Easterly course. One can imagine how far North we got when I say Nagasaki is 1,350 miles North of Manila and Yokahama is 750 miles North of Nagasaki. We got over 2,000 miles North of the Philippines and having gotten thoroughly acclimated in the Tropics our blood was naturally very thin, hence the cold weather (sudden change) went very hard with us.

Two days out of Nagasaki we encountered a heavy storm, which the old "Buford" bravely battled for 10 days. The Japanese coal is not the best in the world and the Buford's supply was being so fastly diminished that it was soon seen that it was either change our course, put into Honolulu for coal or founder. The storm raged in all its fury for 10 days; the sun never showed itself during all this time, that seemed almost a year to us soldiers who were penned and called up like sheep. All the hatches were nailed down. The waves came over the hurricane deck for six days and such a heavy gale was blowing that would have swept one off the deck. By the merest accident we ran across the U. S. A. T. "Pennsylvania" on the evening of the 7th in Latitude 46 deg. 15 sec. North and Longitude 177 deg. East. The angry waves were tossing the "Pennsylvania" like so many feathers. After the customary signals, salutes, etc., the "Pennsylvania" crossed the bow of the "Buford" and came up to within speaking distance on the port side. "Where are you going?" asked the captain of the "Buford" of the captain of the "P." "I am going home," retorted the captain of the "Pennsylvania." "I am going to Honolulu for coal. Report me," said the gallant old Capt. Meribene, of the "Buford." We had then been on our Honolulu route 24 hours. Had we had good weather would have made San Francisco today. We went aboard the "Buford" one month ago today and will have traveled about 8,000 miles from Manila when we get to San Francisco, or about 22,000 miles from New York. The zig-zag route we made from Nagasaki to Honolulu is something like 4,400 miles, while San Francisco lies 2,039 miles to the North-east of Honolulu.

I am glad to be once more in the Tropics, as it is like being at home. The arctic regions came very near doing me up. We got almost as far up as Siberia and the Aleutian Islands. For one to jump from the heart of the Tropics to the arctic regions is no pleasant sensation by any means. It split snow on the first of June. We crossed the 180th Meridian, known as the international date line on the afternoon of June 6th. Consequently the following day was also June 6th. In other words I have lived two Thursday June 6th's. June will have 31 days—four consecutive months, viz: May, June, July and August with 31 days—or 300 days in the year 1901. While in reality we lived this day, or gained this day in making the circuit of the globe and will never write June 31st, yet we did actually have two days of the 6th.

Two days that we called Thursday, June 6th, or one day of 48 hours. Some of the I. J. readers might think this over and reason it out. They are sure to get puzzled, as the boys aboard the ship did. Had we called the next day after crossing the 180th Meridian, Friday, June 7th, and had say arrived in San Francisco on Saturday, June 15th, it would have in reality been Friday June 14th, or in other words we would have been just 24 hours ahead of time. One gains 24 hours circling the globe traveling East and loses 24 hours making the circuit in a Westerly direction. We have been living very rotten ever since coming aboard the "Buford," but thank God it will soon come to an end. The grub dished out to us is of the very worst and oftentimes nauseating. We expect to be in San Francisco in nine or 10 more days and then a week at the longest to wind up our military career. We are very anxious to beat the 43rd and 47th Infantry into Manila. If we do we will have the honor of being the first regiment to carry the stars and stripes around the world—not only that but the first military organization of any nation to encircle the globe. There would have been no doubt but what we would have gotten the honors, had we not encountered the Northern storms. As it is we naturally fear we, or both of the rival regiments, will beat us in.

We tied up to the Honolulu docks at 8 p. m. last evening. Sighted the Hawaiian archipelago early yesterday morning being the first land in 15 days—during this long time, nothing visible but clouds and water, as but very little sky was seen from Japan to Hawaii. We coasted along near the coast of Nippon on the 24th of May. Nippon is the largest of the Japanese group. Yokohama and Tokio are on this island.

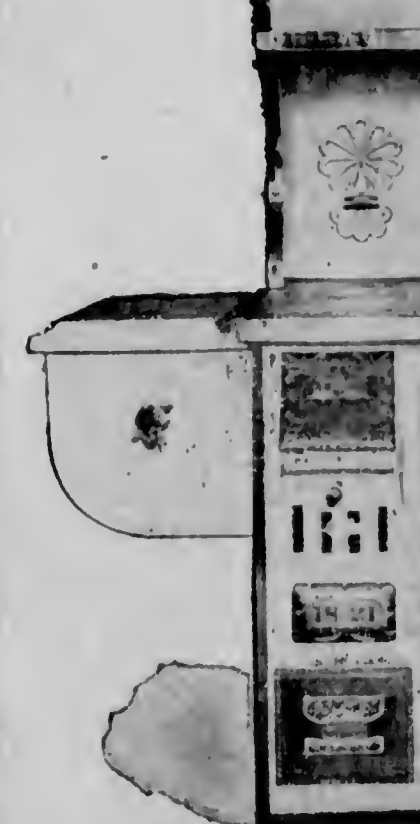

Honolulu is the prettiest tropical city I have ever seen and I have seen the greater part of it today. Visited the palace and many other points of interest. If her health permits ex-Queen Lili will visit the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo in July. Today while I was at the palace, now the executive building, the Territorial Legislature was sitting. Gov. Dole is governor of Hawaii. Before annexation, he was president of the Hawaiian Republic, having succeeded Queen Lili after her dethronement in the early sixties. All newspaper readers are too familiar with those exciting days in which the dusky queen and Grover Cleveland, then president, figured so prominently. The Hawaiians are prospering under American annexation and seem proud of the fact that they are under the protecting folds of the stars and stripes. Nearly all natives speak English and Honolulu and the territory at large boast of good American schools in which nothing but English is taught. Honolulu is situated on the island of Oahu, which is only 690 square miles. Hawaii, the largest of the group, has an area of less than 5,000 square miles. Molekai has an area of 230 square miles. The leper settlement is on this island (Molekai). The principal product of the Territory of Hawaii, or Sandwich Islands, is sugar cane. It was here that Claus Spreckels made his millions.

Well I must quit and come again. I am taking up entirely too much space. CLARENCE COLEMAN, Sergeant, Co. K, 41st Infantry.
